ESTERO, Fla. — Work from 90 artists will be showcased at the 25th annual Fine Art Show in Estero.

The event is being held from 10-5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at JetBlue Park in Fort Myers.

Organizers say guests can view all types of art including paintings, sculptures, clay, glass, fiber, wood, jewelry, and photography.

Admission is free, but there is a $5 charge for parking which will be used to support Institute for the Arts & Education, a non-profit organization focusing on visual arts, cultural diversity, and art education among youths.

All CDC guidelines will be followed.
