Artist Stephanie Linden

booth appearance. You will find something for everyone, in all price ranges.

While at the show, be sure to visit Jewish artist Stephanie Linden. Stephanie comes from a family of artists and artisans. Art has been a lifelong passion and after a full career as a physician, she felt compelled to pursue her artistic dreams. Stephanie is a graduate of the Milan Art Institute and is enjoying her life as a professional artist.

She has a gift for using color and light, showing a sensitivity toward her subject matter. She uses dreamlike images to show the realms of possibility. Her most recent series captures the spiritual joy she finds living and painting in the tropical environs of Florida. She splits her time between her studios in Sarasota and Farmington Hills, Michigan. Stephanie is happy to create a one-of-a-kind piece of art for you! Be sure to say hello and that you read about her in this article.

Hot Works' associated 501(c)(3) nonprofit arm, Institute for the Arts & Education, focuses on visual arts, cultural diversity, community enrichment and fostering art education among youth. It integrates a Youth Art Competition within the show, a unique program that encourages students ages 5-13 (grades K-8) to enter an original artwork that is publicly displayed the entire weekend. On Sunday at 3:00 p.m., $250 in Youth Art Awards are presented as young artists are exposed to the rules and entrepreneurship of doing art shows for a living. We are currently accepting entries from students. More information is available at hotworks.org.

There is free admission to the show. A $5 parking fee supports youth art and is good for in-and-out access all weekend.
